

Three New United States Mint America the Beautiful Quarters™ Sets Available Through Subscription

WASHINGTON - The United States Mint today announced the addition of three new America the Beautiful Quarters sets to its Online Subscription Program. The new products -- a three-coin set, an uncirculated set and a circulating set -- feature coins in the new United States Mint America the Beautiful Quarters Program, which will honor a national park or site in each state, the District of Columbia and five U.S. territories beginning this year.

Customers may begin placing their subscription orders for these products at noon Eastern Time (ET) on May 19, at the United States Mint's secure Web site, <http://www.usmint.gov/catalog>, or by calling 1-800-USA-MINT (872-6468). Hearing and speech-impaired customers with TTY equipment may order by calling 1-888-321-MINT (6468).

The 2010 sets showcase the first five quarters released in the program: Hot Springs National Park (Arkansas); Yellowstone National Park (Wyoming); Yosemite National Park (California); Grand Canyon National Park (Arizona); and Mount Hood National Forest (Oregon). The new sets are:

* America the Beautiful Quarters Three-Coin Set ($13.95) -- one uncirculated coin from the United States Mint at Philadelphia, one uncirculated coin from the United States Mint at Denver, and one proof coin from the United States Mint at San Francisco. The first set issued under the Online Subscription Program contains three Hot Springs National Park quarters. Subsequent sets will contain three quarters for each national park or site when it is released.

* America the Beautiful Quarters Uncirculated Coin Set ($21.95) -- five uncirculated coins from the United States Mint at Philadelphia and five uncirculated coins from the United States Mint at Denver in 2010. Subsequent sets will contain the quarters issued in that year.

* America the Beautiful Quarters Circulating Coin Set ($9.95) -- five circulating-quality coins from the United States Mint at Philadelphia and five circulating-quality coins from the United States Mint at Denver issued in 2010. Subsequent sets will contain the quarters issued in that year.

Prices may change during the course of a subscription. Should a change occur, the new price will be listed on the 30-day pre-fulfillment notification. Customers should review their notifications carefully.

To ensure uninterrupted delivery of the products in their subscription(s), customers should keep their credit card information current. The United States Mint will make every effort to ensure product availability, but cannot guarantee it, especially in cases of limited mintages. The United States Mint reserves the right to discontinue any subscription program at any time at its discretion. Customers may cancel their subscription orders at any time.

The United States Mint, created by Congress in 1792, is the Nation's sole manufacturer of legal tender coinage. Its primary mission is to produce an adequate volume of circulating coinage for the Nation to conduct its trade and commerce. The United States Mint also produces proof, uncirculated and commemorative coins; Congressional Gold Medals; and silver, gold and platinum bullion coins.
